

Elaine Clapp
Michigan Occupational Safety & Health Administration

Elaine works in enforcement for the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration (MIOSHA) which administers occupational and safety health regulations in the state of Michigan. Elaine has fourteen years of experience with the General Industry Safety and Health Division. She has held the following positions: Industrial Hygienist, Senior Industrial Hygienist, and Industrial Hygiene Metals Specialist. She is currently a Safety and Health Manager and is responsible for all safety and health enforcement functions in the western part of Michigan.