

Ken Haga
Industrial Air Quality, Inc.

Ken has 14 years of experience in the industrial ventilation field. Prior to joining Industrial Air Quality as a Territory Manager, Ken was an industrial sales representative for two sales organizations in Michigan serving the Great Lakes Area.

Ken has experience with automotive manufacturers and tier II, and III automotive supplier/manufacturers' with aiding them in the design, sizing, monitoring, installing, and implementing of industrial ventilation systems for operations that require welding fume control and machining mist & smoke collection for OSHA and related agency compliance requirements.