

Phil Miller
Lubrizol Corp., Global Product Compliance

Phil Miller received both his B.S. in Marketing and B.S. Chemistry from Fairfield University in Fairfield, CT. Phil has worked with the Lubrizol Corporation since 1997, and currently holds the position of the Global Compliance Manager in Metalworking Additives. Phil joined Gateway Additive Co. in 1992 as the VP of Technical Services located in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Phil's prior work experienced included 22 years with Olin Corporation in New Haven and Cheshire, CT, as a Tech Service Rep for Polyalkylene Glycol business area.

Phil is a Panel member of the American Chemistry Council Biocides, the former President of STLE, a former chair of Metal Removal Fluids subcommittee ASTM, and the Former Technology Committee Chairman of ILMA.

Phil also has 11 US and 5 Foreign Patents, has written many STLE papers, presentations and education programs.