

Vikrant Vijay
North Carolina State University, College of Veterinary Medicine

Vikrant Vijay was born on 5th June 1978 in Chhapra, Bihar, India. He completed his primary and high school education from Kendriya Vidyalaya and matriculated in 1995. He qualified All India entrance examination conducted by Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) in 1997 at national level for admission to Veterinary Medicine in State Agricultural Universities. He received a BVSc&AH degree in 2002 from ANGRAU, Hyderabad, AP, India, with distinction. He secured third rank in All India Post-graduate entrance examination conducted by ICAR at national level in 2002. He was awarded Junior Research Fellowship by ICAR and received MS in Veterinary Pharmacology in 2005 from GBPUA&T, Pantnagar, UA, India, with distinction. He was awarded Graduate Research Assistantship in 2005 at College of Veterinary Medicine, NCSU, Raleigh, NC to pursue Doctoral degree. He is currently pursuing PhD in Comparative Biomedical Sciences (Pharmacology) under the supervision of Drs. Ronald Baynes and Jim Riviere.